

Spiritual Communion Meditation
12/27/2020

Lord God: We thank you for this glorious day. This Glory-filled day with the Love we know in Jesus.

Many of us here in our St. Cyprian's community of faith were blessed by our beautiful Christmas Eve Service, and heard the soul gripping solo by our young man Nick Aiello: "I Wonder as I Wander." Perhaps his notes - his words, were ours, as he sang "I wonder as I wander beneath the blue sky"

Perhaps his words - his plaintiff cries were exactly ours. Yes, Lord, we are now, more than ever, "wondering as we wander."

Lord God: Be with us! Make your presence known to us. Help us to be strengthened NOW with the support of our Spiritual Communion. Strengthen us to know you are here with us, as you promised. We are not alone. Help us to offer NOW, HERE, THIS DAY...our anxieties...our disappointments, our uncertainties, indeed, our fears to YOU in trust.

Come, Lord Jesus, in the power of this Holy Sacrament of Holy Eucharist - Our Holy Thanksgiving to you...Come Lord Jesus!

Make your Love known to us! Stay with us! Oh Lord God, Emmanuel.

AMEN
