

Spiritual Communion Meditation

April 25, 2021

Lord God: We come before you ever so mindful of our source of life: YOU, our Breath of God. We sing, "Breath on me breath of God, so shall I never die." With the death of our brother George Floyd begging for that very breath, we all the more thank you that with you, our breath of God, we LIVE! We and George Floyd have your Blessed Assurance, just as the words of our beautiful hymn express it: "Breath on me breath of God. So shall I never die; but live with thee the perfect life of thine eternity." May it be so with our brother George, that even MORE than the breath he pleaded for, YOU DID Breath on him, so shall he never die, but live with YOU the perfect Life of your eternity." We thank you, Lord God that we have the miracle of Jesus' Resurrection to help us know that there is new life where no life seemed possible.

Jesus is God's Love made flesh, freely, openly and permanently given to each and all of us. Lord God, we ask that you continue to strengthen US through the Blessing of our Holy Communion, that we will be ever more aware of our abundance, including the certainty of your grace, and through that awareness may we be ever more mindful of the lack of love ...indeed the presence of hate and destruction that is all around us. Speak to us Good Lord to help us to offer more of our gifts, our abundance, to others, whether or not they will know where their help comes from. Yes, "where there is hate, may WE sow Love." As conduits of your Love, your hands and feet now, may WE sow Love...whenever and wherever we may be.

As the Daughters of the King Motto proclaims, "We cannot do everything, but we can do something!" Inspire us to help to ease the burdens of others, through the abundance of the gifts you have given us. And now, as we prepare to part from one another, hold us in Your Always Love, we pray in thanksgiving. AMEN
